

Tabriz

Where is Tabriz? This gem of Eastern Azerbaijan is located in a valley surrounded by red mountain ranges. Tabriz is the largest and most populated city and the industrial heart of western Iran. Tabrizians are known as hardworking people whose seriousness is tempered by their undying devotion for their families and a love of their city. Tabriz is also known in Iran as the city of pioneers, having introduced many firsts into the political and cultural scene of the country. Most of the people in Tabriz speak in native Azeri Turkish and the majority of Tabriz residents maintain close cultural ties with the neighboring countries.

Tabriz Weather

Iran is a country with different climates and among these Tabriz has a multifaceted weather. Weather of Tabriz has all the characteristics of four seasons. Tabriz is known for its harsh and snowy weather in winters and cool and rainy springs carpeted with a myriad of flowers that last until the end of its mild summers. Weather in Tabriz is one of the main tourist attractions of the city enticing many people from all around the world annually with its snowy mountain peaks and green valleys.

Tabriz Metro

Tabriz is unique among Iranian cities in its diverse means of transportation among which are various taxi services, speed buses (BRT) and above all the soon- to- be operational Tabriz metro lines are worth mentioning. Tabriz metro map covers the whole city linking the south (El Goli Station and Ostad Shahriar Station) to the central and northern parts (Meydan-e Sa&#39;at Station). There is also a long distance commuter line (Tabriz-Sahand Line) which connects Tabriz metro lines to Sahand subway station. Tabriz metro lines are still under the final phases of construction and they are expected to be officially opened within a year.

Tabriz Map

As it is seen from Tabriz Google map, the city comprises many districts each special and unique in its historical and cultural status. One look at the map of Tabriz reveals the great variety of the places: from the labyrinthine halls of the Grand Bazaar steeped in history and tradition to the dense green scenery of El Goli Luna Park, from old neighborhoods and their narrow brick alleys in Maghsudiye and Shariati to modern houses and grand villas of Valiasr and El Goli.

Tabriz International Airport

Tabriz international airport as one of the oldest international airports in Iran has been serving as the main airport of Tabriz for more than sixty-five years. Tabriz airport departures include international flights to Germany, Turkey, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Azerbaijan, Georgia and Armenia. In addition to international flights, Tabriz airport has regular internal flights to Iranian cities including daily flights to Tehran, Mashhad, Isfahan, Shiraz and Kish. Known by the airport code TBZ, Tabriz international airport transfers more than 1.5 million passengers per year. Among the renowned international flight agencies active in Tabriz International airport are Turkish Airlines and Flydubi.

Tabriz Tourist Attractions

Tabriz is known for its diversity of tourist attractions divided mainly into three separate categories: Natural sights and public parks, historical buildings, monuments and museums, and commercial centers. Tourists visiting Tabriz will experience these attractions alongside with the incredible hospitality of Tabrizians who always welcome new faces and are excited to know people from other cultures. Indeed this warmth is the secret ingredient that adds flavor to the impeccable finesse of the historical monuments and natural beauty of Tabriz sights. Moreover there are tourist information centers that distribute brochures of tabriz tourist attraction and offer their service to the guests.